

NAME _____

DATE _____

Pictures You Can Hear: Playground MUSSORGSKY "Tuileries" from Pictures at an Exhibition

EXPLORE THE WORLD!

The title of this music, "Tuileries," is a park located in the city of Paris.

Paris is the capital of what country? _____

There are seven continents on Earth. Using Ducksters Geography page as a reference, label the continents on the map.

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 5. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 6. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 4. _____ | |

On what continent is the country of France located? _____

Using a RED crayon or colored pencil, color the continent where France is located on the map. Then, using a BLUE crayon or colored pencil, color the continent in which the United States is located.

Pick 3 topics to research about France from the box below. Using the internet, books, and your parents or teachers as your resources, write a fact about each of the topics you picked.

Language Population Government Weather Religion
Tallest Mountain Historical Figure Famous Landmark

Topic 1: _____

Fact: _____

Topic 2: _____

Fact: _____

Topic 3: _____

Fact: _____

BONUS QUESTION!

The people of France gave a very important gift to the American people in 1886. It is a symbol of freedom and friendship between France and United States. Gustave Eiffel, who built the Eiffel Tower, a famous landmark in Paris, built the "spine" of this famous statue in the United States, too.

What is the name of this statue? _____

In which city is it located? _____

