Pictures You Can Hear: Playground MUSSORGSKY "Tuileries" from Pictures at an Exhibition

WHAT DO YOU HEAR?

BEFORE YOU WATCH

Just like you can paint pictures with a brush and paint, music can paint pictures with sound, too. This music is about a busy playground and garden with lots of children and their friends and families. Have you ever been to a busy playground? What is your favorite thing to do there, and why?

AFTER YOU WATCH

On a real playground, there are many different things happening at once. The same is true of our musical playground! The composer Modest Mussorgsky uses music to paint different scenes that you can hear. Buddy points out three different parts to the music, or scenes on the playground, that help tell the story of the kids at the garden. Can you remember what they are?

Do you think the kids are playing, or arguing about something? Or maybe both? What did the music make you feel?

NOW DRAW!

While listening to the music, close your eyes and think about your favorite thing to do at the playground. Does this music sound like a trip down the slide? How about swinging on the swing set with friends? Maybe a game of tag? You decide, and draw a picture of what's happening on the playground in the space provided!
