"Lenny and Lukas" BERNSTEIN "For Lukas Foss" from Five Anniversaries

WHAT DO YOU HEAR?

Lukas Foss was a very good friend of Leonard Bernstein.

Lenny (Leonard's nickname) wrote this music for Lukas' birthday. Have you ever celebrated a friend's birthday? What did you do?

MUSICAL CONVERSATION

This music sounds a lot like two people having a conversation. Buddy assigns Lenny and Lukas to each of his hands.

Which hand is which person?

_____ LEFT HAND

_____ RIGHT HAND

Trace your LEFT HAND in the space below!

CLIBURN KIDS

Lukas (left hand) starts the conversation, and Lenny (right hand) copies what Lukas says.

What do you think Lenny and Lukas are talking about? What questions do you think Lenny has?

Then Lenny gets the hiccups! Does it sound the same as when Lenny and Lukas were talking, or does it sound different? How?

After Lenny's hiccups are over, they can start talking again. Are they talking about something else? If so, what do you think that is?

Are all of Lenny's questions answered in the end?
