SLEIGH RIDE
 TCHAIKOVSKY "Troika" from The Seasons, op. 37b
 ANDERSON Sleigh Ride

WHAT DO YOU HEAR?

TROIKA

In this episode, we listen to two different pieces, each depicting a wintry ride in a sleigh. How can we tell them apart?

Our first piece is called "Troika," which is a Russian sleigh that is pulled by three animals. What kind of animals are pulling this particular sleigh?

While we listen, Corrie asks us to pay attention to three different things.

1. How many times do the animals get excited? _____ times

When do they get excited?

How can you tell?

2. Which of the Natsuko's hands is busier during these excited moments? RIGHT / LEFT

3. When the sleigh ride ends, what kind of mood are the animals in?

SLEIGH RIDE

Next, we listen to a different kind of sleigh ride!

How many hands will be used to play this piece? _____ hands

What kind of animals are pulling this particular sleigh?

There's a special surprise guest at the end! What does he play, and what does it sound like?

Corrie calls this by a special name. What is it?

Which sleigh ride would you rather be on? Which piece did you enjoy more, and why?
